

Remember how you felt when the Great American Cattle Drive came through town in September?

Relive the Experience

We have a variety of cattle drive-related items for sale. Just let us know by bringing your order to the Ellsworth Antique Mall or by calling (785) 472-4670.

The Great American Drive Experience video with cowboy musician Michael Martin Murphey$29.95

$24.95

Poster of the Ellsworth County Independent-Reporter's front page following the cattle drive. I-R Managing Editor Mark Seitz took this photo standing atop the railroad crossing on North Douglas Avenue. 11x17 inches.

$29.95 – Great American Cattle Drive wind spinners

$29.95 – Wild rags, just like the ones made by Laurie Donley for the drovers who rode the trail Sept. 30.

Salina Photographer Jeff Cooper participated in the trail drive. His photos can be viewed for purchase at www.printroom.com/pro/jeffcooperphoto

 Half the print sales to to the Insurance Building project.*

Reserve a print of an original oil painting by noted Hill City artist Mike Boss. The painting features downtown Ellsworth's signature Insurance Building, the reason for the 2006 cattle drive.*

Limited Edition Prints – $39.95 each
Ten Artist's Proofs – $79.95 each

Reserve your print of this Great American Cattle Drive painting, "Just South of Ellsworth, by Jerry Riness.*"

Limited Edition Prints – $39.95 each
Ten Artist's Proofs – $79.95 each

*Minimum number of print orders required for press run.